Many Legends Have Been Built Around Mistletoe

(FOREST PRESERVE DIST. BULLETIN)

One of our cherished customs at Christmas time is that of decorating our homes with mistletoe, including sprigs of it hung over doorways and from ceiling lights. Why? And from whence came the convention of kissing under the mistletoe?

There are as many curious customs, myths and traditions involving that strange plant as there are races and countries of people. No one knows where and how it originated, but mistletoe is distributed over the earth in all the warmer climates and almost to the limits of the temperate zones.

Its unique habit of living on the branches of trees - green and reproducing without visible means of sustenance - caused it to be credited with magical properties, and to be regarded with superstitious fear or religious reverence by primitive and ancient peoples.

There is a vary old tradition in England that the mistletoe was once "a fair tree in the forest", but that from its wood was made the cross upon which Christ was crucified and, therefore, it was cursed and condemned to be forevermore a parasite and the most despised of plants. On the other hand, the ancient Druids held nothing more sacred than the mistletoe and it played a prominent part in ceremonies and religious sacrifices at the time of their New Year.

The Romans, during the feasts of Saturnalia in mid-December, ornamented their temples and dwellings with mistletoe to propitiate the gods to whom it was sacred. In Norse mythology there is a complicated legend involving the death of Baldur, son of Odin and Frigga, and the wicked Loki, whereby the mistletoe was condemned to be a parasite with no power to cause misfortune, sorrow or death. Further, beneath it anyone might receive and accept a kiss with assurance that it was a symbol of peace and love. Q.E.D.

In the United States there are two types of PHORADENDRON and about 100 species. The Dwarf Mistletoes are small scaly degenerate plants, wholly parasitic, that grow only on coniferous trees. The True Mistletoes grow only on deciduous hardwood trees. The best know of these is the state flower of Oklahoma. It occurs as far north as southern New Jersey, central Ohio, southern Illinois and eastern Kansas. There is a closely related species in the Pacific coast states, and there are other kinds varying in their leaves, flowers, fruits, size and habits of growth.

The true mistletoe is an evergreen plant and, therefore, not altogether a parasite. Being green, it contains chlorophyll and manufactures part of its own food, but it procures water and other necessary substances from the tree upon which it grows. It has roots, and those penetrate thru the outer and inner bark of a branch to secure ascending sap from the sapwood. If too many bunches of mistletoe infest a tree, eventually they kill it.

In southern Illinois, mistletoe commonly grows in large dense bunches that give a bizarre but pleasing touch to the woodlands in winter when it becomes conspicuous among the naked branches. It has thick leathery yellowish-green leaves that are oval and about two inches long. The male flowers and female flowers are borne on separate plants. The latter are followed by clusters of little berries that become ivory-white when they ripen in autumn.

The berry is filled with a juicy sticky pulp enclosing a single seed. They are said to be fatal to children but are eaten by many kinds of birds. The pulp is digested but the little seed passes thru them unharmed. This, plus the fact that seeds often stick to birds' bills or feet, accounts for the spreading of this plant from tree to tree and from place to place.

It can be a pest, particularly to a bashful guy.

First American Cards Made In Boston 1875

American Christmas cards were launched on a commercial scale exactly 89 years ago by an eminent Boston lithographer named Louis Prang.

A penniless immigrant when he landed in America in 1850, Prang made a big impact on America's celebration of Christmas, earning him the title of "Father" of the American Christmas card.

Prang got started publishing greeting cards in a rather strange way. In 1874, one year before he marketed his first American Christmas cards, a young art student, Miss De. E. Whitney, who worked in his shop, presented him with a painting of a budding moss rose which she had done.

There was something about this simple moss rose that appealed to both his artistic sense and to his commercial instincts. He decided to print "Merry Christmas" on small floral decorated cards as the British had been doing since the early 1840's.

Unlike today's Christmas cards, Prang used very few of the standard Christmas motifs on his cards. His favorites were illustrations of spring flowers, harvest scenes and pictures of children playing.

Christmas Tree Serves As Mail Box For Santa Letter

A pair of skates is what Carrie wanted most, she told Santa in a letter, and with an assist from some helpers at Mokena and the United States air mail service the request should be fulfilled today.

It was on Nov. 25 that Carrie Watson, 11 years old, of Doaktown wrote her letter and mailed it thru the simple expedient of folding it around the limb of a Christmas tree.

Doaktown, it should be explained, is in New Brunswick, Canada, which lies to the east - and some of it north -- of Maine. And from Mokena to Hazelton road, Rt. 1, Doaktown, would be a push of some 1,200 miles for Santa's reindeers, airborne tho they be.

Santa Claus, as everyone knows, has his home and principal workshops at the North Pole but Carrie's letter made a detour. Secure in its evergreen mail box and protected against the weather by oiled paper the letter came south with the tree that finally wound up in a market spot in Joliet. The tree was finally purchased by John Roesener, a member of the custodial staff at Carpenter Street school Mokena.

The Roeseners have four children and with their help went about setting up the Christmas tree last weekend. When the branches were straightened out Carrie's letter was revealed.

"If you can't bring me a pair of skates -- size - 4 -- her message to Santa ran, "I would take whatever you have. . . Santa you know where I live. There is snow on now so you can bring your reindeers and sleigh. Goodbye for now Santa, I'll be waiting for you. . . be sure and come. Love."

Mr. Roesner brought the letter to the News - Bulletin office at Mokena about noon Monday and suggested action. Telephone calls located the required size of shoe skates at Braun Sales in New Lenox. Frank Grey, Jr., president of the Mokena Chamber of Commerce and a lieutenant colonel in the national guard air force, called airlines and O'Hare Field and ascertained that the quickest way for the skates to go would be via air mail. Mayor Charles Swanberg gave a hand and before the afternoon was over the skates were on their way. The post office said that Carrie should have them by today, just a day short of a month from the time she mailed her letter to Santa Claus in a Christmas tree.

She had a postscript in the letter -- if Santa had a jacket or a pair of snow boots left over they would be appreciated but the skates were what she wanted most.

The Roeseners are writing Carrie.

Pick Winner Of Garden Club Decoration Contest

Mrs. Ronald Sak, of North Brightway st., was the winner of the outside Christmas decoration contest for homes of Mokena Garden club members, it was announced this week by the president, Mrs. Robert Schultz.

As winner Mrs. Sak will have possession of the traveling trophy, a loving cup that just eluded Mrs. Donald Guendling. Winning the cup three times in succession gives the winner permanent possession. Mrs. Guendling won the cup last year and the year previous.

Winner of second place this year was Mrs. Herbert Neef, Wolf rd., and third place went to Mrs. Donald Scofield, Brightwood.

The judges were Albert Behnke, Mrs. Clarence Miller and Mrs. Philip Lenz. Following the judging, judges and contestants had refreshments at the Schultz home where the awards were made.

Window Service At Post Office Off Saturday

There will be no window service nor city delivery of mail from area post offices Saturday, Dec. 26, it was announced by the post office department.

Box lobbies, will be open, however, and rural carriers will make their rounds as usual. The staffs that work the mails will be on duty but will not sell stamps or transact other business at the windows.

The only real holiday goes to the carriers who make village and city deliveries.

Area Wants Access To North-South Expressway

FAI-61, the proposed north and south expressway extending 31 miles from FAI-90 southwest of Itasca in DuPage county to a junction with FAI-80 in New Lenox township, is on the drawing board but it will be many years before it will accommodate the motoring public.

This was brought out Wednesday of last week when the Illinois Division of Highways conducted a public hearing on the project in the Exhibition hall, at Fred H. Francis 4-H Field, Francis rd., New Lenox township.

James H. Dinkheller, district engineer, said the first step would be the acquisition of right-of-way but no money for that purpose probably would be available until 1966 or 1967. Before actual construction could be started congress will have to appropriate money for the purpose, he said, and the state too will have to have funds available. When that will be would have to be a guess, he added.

Cost of the project has been estimated at $75-million, exclusive of right-of-way. It is to be a multi-lane facility with the number of lanes dependent upon the engineers' estimate of traffic volume 20 years after construction. There will be a grass median strip 46 feet wide. The right-of-way is to be some 250 feet in width. The highway would pass thru DuPage county, a portion of Cook near Lemont and into Will, ending north of Francis rd.

It will be a controlled access route and location of interchanges where people can get off and off the highway appeared to be the principal point of interest for many of those present, altho the biggest hand given anyone who appeared before the audience was the man who said he wasn't representing any group but thought someone should speak up in behalf of the taxpayer and were all these highways necessary.

E. Wilson Campbell, director of the Chicago Area Transportation Study, said they did not expect this area (Mokena-New Lenox) to fully develop until the 1980's but that the entire region would have an extra heavy concentration of population by 1985 and that expressways would still have to carry the travel load. He estimated that expressways would have to be spaced four miles apart instead of six. Missiles, trains, helicopters or flying saucers might haul some of the people but the highway and the automobile are still going to do the big part of the job, he added.

Supt. A. Hunter Chapman, of Lincoln-Way high school, who also is chairman of the highway committee for the New Lenox Association of Commerce, and Dr. George Woodruff, a resident of New Lenox township, both went on record at the hearing for an interchange off N. Cedar road which would serve both FAI-80, the transcontinental east and west highway which is under construction in places, and I-61. The present plan calls for a junction of I-80 and I-61 without access or egress. The original plan for I-80 called for an interchange on N. Cedar road. This has been left out of the current plans and people in the New Lenox area want it restored. New Lenox also lacks any access to I-61.

"First Baby" Contest Time Here Again

The annual "first baby" contest for the area included in Green Garden, Frankfort, New Lenox and Orland townships, is to be staged again this year with the winner receiving numerous prizes donated by various business houses.

The winner, of course, will be the first child born Jan. 1, or after, to parents residing in the four townships since Nov. 1, 1964.

The child can be born at home or at a hospital. The parents, doctor, or some member of the family must telephone the Graphic News-paper office at Mokena, 479-4151 or 479-3521 before noon of Jan. 8, giving the name of the parents and the time and place of birth. In the event of a multiple birth the first child is the winner.

Arbury Hills Home Is Best Decorated

An Arbury Hills resident, James Hager of 9413 W. Willow lane, won first prize in the annual Christmas home decoration contest for the Mokena area, it was announced Tuesday by George Helgersen, chairman of the committee in charge. The event was sponsored by the Mokena Chamber of Commerce.

First prize was $10 which Mr. and Mrs. Hager donated to the Mokena Lions club blind fund.

Second prize, which carried a $5 award went to Anthony DiPaolo, 18900 S. Townline road.

The judges complained to Helgersen that there were so many beautifully decorated homes that it was difficult to make a choice. The contest was open to all residents of Mokena and the immediately surrounding area.

George Hartley, a former assistant supervisor for Lockport, asked to have the interchange now scheduled for 143rd street moved to Archer ave (4-A). Others appeared to urge that it be left where it is--on 143rd st.

Some tricky grade separations and interchanges will be needed at Lemont, where the lakes-to-gulf waterway and a couple of railroads are involved.

Supervisor John E. Francis, who is also head of the county road committee, told the state engineer the county was satisfied with the route of I-61 and similar sentiment was expressed by Will County Highway Superintendent James McCarthy. Supervisor Francis is also working for an interchange along N. Cedar which would give area residents access to I-80 and I-61.

The meeting at Francis Field last week was the third and concluding public hearing conducted by the state highway department on the proposed construction of FAI-61.

Mayor W. R. Schussler, Jr., was at the hearing, representing Orland Park. New Lenox village board was represented by Trustee Wilbur Thackrey, chairman of the street department, and F. Walter Reinhard, business manager for the "Village."

Extinguisher Lost

The Mokena volunteer fire department lost a 20-pound carbon dioxide fire extinguisher off the pumper truck and Chief Robert Rust would appreciate it if the finder would call him or the department so it can be picked up.

The chief's number is 479-5109; the telephone number at the fire house is 479-2121.

ONCE AGAIN it is Christmas time, a joyous time of giving and sharing. Let us be thankful.

Where Christianity is today there is Christmas. Let us hope and pray that it will always be a day we can celebrate freely and openly.

You know the Puritans had a law abolishing Christmas and provided a penalty for those who would celebrate it. They were against Easter too. When one considers the bleak nature of such people it is not surprising they were able to withstand the rigors of New England winters, having natures somewhat colder than the temperature.

But to think of people who would abolish Christmas now? It does seem absurd to harbor such a speculation but one can't tell what the U.S. Supreme Court will do next.

WE ARE FOR Christmas, we are for God and we are for the United States. If that be treason, so be it.

Some people would profess that Christmas is only for children, that so far as adults

Eight Fined For Traffic Violations

Eight traffic fines were levied in the Mokena Branch of the Will county circuit court by Magistrate Robert Burns. The following fines were imposed.

Speeding: Leroy Weldon, Winthrop, Minn., $17; Michael Jarbos, Penfield, Ill., $22; Thomas Cherven, Joliet, $25; Arthur Lorenz, Lansing, Ill., $16.

Disobeyed stop sign: Derek Brisco, Joliet, $10; Rondell Baize, Joliet, $10.

Too fast for conditions: William Blaylock, Frankfort, $10.

Improper passing, J. Merl Jones, Joliet, $10.

A $5 court was also paid by the above.

Death Takes Frankfort Man; Rites Wednesday

Funeral services were conducted yesterday afternoon from the Sonntag, Burgess and Wylie chapel, Joliet, for Stewart Zechlin, 49, of Frankfort, who died Sunday night, Dec. 20.

The Rev. LaVern Smith, pastor of St. Peter's church, officiated at the service and interment was in Pleasant Hill cemetery, Frankfort.

Mr. Zechlin is survived by his mother, the former Lillian Bumgardner, one brother, David, of Frankfort, and several aunts and uncles. His father, Alfred Zechlin, died in 1961.

are concerned it should be done away with.

As the American colonel said to the German general at the Battle of the Bulge when called upon to surrender:

"Nuts!"

People who talk about doing away with Christmas are true disciples of Scrooge, in Dicken's "A Christmas Carol", before Marley's ghost and the Spirits of Christmas Past, Christmas Present and Christmas Future converted him to a different view.

UNTIL RECLAIMED Scrooge was a grasping, miserable, miserly man and his tirade against Christmas in which he would have had keepers of the day "boiled in their own puddings and buried with a stake of holly thru their hearts" was prompted by the appearance of his nephew who had stopped at the counting house to wish Scrooge a merry Christmas and invite him to dinner.

What had Christmas ever done for him, Scrooge demanded of his nephew and the nephew's reply is something that all of us could remember with profit.

"THERE ARE many things from which I might have derived good, by which I have not profited, I dare say -- Christmas among the rest. But I am sure I have always thought of Christmas time, when it has come round -- apart from the veneration due to its sacred name and origin, if anything belonging to it can be apart from that -- as a good time; a kind, forgiving, charitable, pleasant time; the only time I know if in the long calendar of the year, when men and women seem by one consent to open their shut-up hearts freely, and to think of people below them as if they really were fellow-passengers to the grave, and not another race of creatures bound on other journeys.

"And therefore, uncle, tho it has never put a scrap of gold or silver in my pocket, I believe that it HAS done me good and WILL do me good; and I say, God bless it."

To which we say amen, and a joyous Christmas to all of you from all of us who strive to get out your paper.

The Gospel According To St. Luke

CHAPTER 2

1. Augustus taxeth the Roman empire. 6. The nativity of Christ. 8. One angel relateth it to the shepherds. 13. Many sing praises to God for it. 21. Christ is circumcised.

1. And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.

2. (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)

3. And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David;)

5. To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

6. And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

8. And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

10. And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

12. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14. Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

15. And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16. And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18. And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19. But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

20. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

21. And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called JESUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

And best wishes to you and your family

Many Christmas Customs Originate From Saints

Decorating an evergreen tree. Caroling thru the streets on Christmas Eve. Hanging stockings on the fireplace mantel. How did these and other old Christmas customs get started? The Christmas tree dates back to the ninth century and Saint Winifred who was traveling around Northern Germany preaching Christianity. He came upon a group of people gathered around a huge oak tree to offer human sacrifice to their pagan gods.

According to legend, Saint Winifred hewed down the oak, and a tall fir appeared in its place. The miracle was hailed far and wide and from that day on, it became the custom for the German families to gather about a tall evergreen on Christmas Eve. Martin Luther decorated the first tree in the 16th century. He placed candles on a small evergreen to symbolize the stars.

Caroling started in 13th century Italy. St. Francis of Assisi encouraged villages to display the nativity scene and act out the Christmas story in passion plays. Later carols were composed to go along with the plays and the custom of caroling thru the streets got started.

One of the most beautiful customs involving caroling is still observed in Austria every Christmas Eve. Beginning with the family living the farthest from the village church, torchbearing carolers form a procession thru the village. At each house, the procession is joined by all the inhabitants. Eventually the entire village is part of the procession as it arrives at the church steps.

Saint Nicholas has been leaving gifts for good little boys and girls on Christmas Eve ever since the fourth century. The original St. Nicholas was a Turkish Bishop, noted for his works of charity, who became the patron saint of children.

Martin Luther later substituted the Christ Child or Christkindlein for St. Nicholas as the bearer of gifts in Germany. Later a German colony led by William Penn settled in Pennsylvania and again Santa changed his name. The settlers had brought Christkindlein with them, but somehow it got transformed into Kris Kringle.

The Dutch may have nicknamed St. Nicholas "Santa Claus" for short, but his image as a fat little man with rosy cheeks and white beard comes from the famous American poem, "The Night Before Christmas".

During the 19th Century, Santa recrossed the Atlantic from the United States and became known as "Father Christmas" in England and "Pere Noel" in France.

The Dutch are believed to have been the first to hang stockings on the fireplace mantel. One story says it started when St. Nicholas came upon a poor man who couldn't afford a dowry for his daughters. Noticing a stocking hung up near the fire to dry, Saint Nicholas slipped some gold pieces into it.

In some countries, Italy for example, the children put out their shoes instead of stockings.

One of the more modern Christmas customs is sending Christmas greetings each year. In a little over a century -- they first got started in England in 1843-- this relatively new custom has become well established.

Christmas Towns Can Be Found In U.S. Postal Guide

Traces of Christmas can even be found in Uncle Sam's official postal guide.

"Santa Claus", Ind., "Bethlehem", Conn., and "Christmas", Fla., are a few of the more familiar post offices which each year handle floods of mail from senders wishing to obtain appropriate Yuletide postmarks on their greetings.

Indiana's "Santa Claus" is the only town so designated in the United States. The privilege is reserved to its post office by Congressional Act. There is, however, "Santa" in Idaho, but only one "Christmas" -- the one in Florida, plus a "Christmas Cove" in Maine.

On the other hand, seven "Bethlehems" answer the seasonal roll call. They can be found in Connecticut, Georgia, Indiana, Kentucky, Maryland, New Hampshire and Pennsylvania.

The Rev. James Parker officiated at the double ring wedding service uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Harwood, 78th ave., Frankfort and the son of Mr. Fred Schultz of Tinley Park and Mrs. Jean Thrasher of Kansas City, Mo.

Guest soloist, Miss Bonnie Rydell, was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Donna Corp.

Escorted by her father to an altar enhanced by bouquets of white gladiolus and white mums and candleabra, the bride wore a white satin peau de sole and french alencon lace, coat style dress, with a cathedral train, bell sleeves in the coat and side insets of alencon lace. The sheath dress underneath had a front of pearl and embroidery lace. Her veil was a 4 tier french illusion. The bride carried white and red garnet roses and wore a star pendant with diamonds.

Leiona Hutchins attended as maid of honor. She wore a burgundy velvet long sheath dress with a slight train, v-back and long sleeves. She carried a bouquet of hot pink carnations centered with a baby garnet rose. She wore a petal shaped burgundy veil.

Dressed identically with Miss Hutchins were the bridesmaids, Barbara Harwood and Eileen Smith.

Flower girl, Debbie Richard, was dressed in a long bell-shaped dress of burgundy velvet with long sleeves. She carried pink carnation flowers in a basket.

Leland Harwood attended as best man, groomsmen were Dale Hull and Gary VerWey and ushers were John Harwood and Gary Wilson.

Ring-bearer, Mark Richard, wore a black tuxedo.

A reception followed in the VFW hall, Mokena, where 300 guests were served dinner. Mrs. Harwood, mother of the bride, greeted guests wearing a chiffon and gold brocade sheath dress with side drape, matching accessories and a corsage of pink cymbidium. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Thrasher, wore an aqua brocade sheath dress with matching accessories and corsage.

Honored guests were Mrs. Edith Harwood and Mrs. Sophie Hunniford.

Many Lands Still Observe Old Customs

Although universal in its spirit and purpose, Christmas is observed in many different ways throughout the world. Individual countries have acquired literally thousands of customs thru the ages. Some have been discarded along the way, while others are still observed.

In Mexico, for example, breaking the "Pinata", an earthenware jug filled with fruits, nuts and candies, is still an important Christmas custom. Blindfolded children armed with sticks try to break it open. When they succeed, all join in the scramble for the "goodies" that pour out.

In the Northland of Canada, the Eskimos have a unique Christmas Custom. Entire Eskimo communities set off to visit neighboring towns. The following year the visit is repaid and the visiting town becomes the host.

In Finland, all members of Finnish families must take a steam bath before the festivities of Christmas Eve can begin.

In Yugoslavia, the Christmas celebration is centered around the Yule log. A young tree is felled and brought in to the house before sunrise on Christmas morning.

While burning, it is struck with an iron rod causing sparks to fly up the chimney. Tradition says that blessings as numerous as the sparks will fall on the family during the coming year.

Special loaves of bread are baked for the Christmas celebration in Greece. Each loaf is marked with a cross on top; a silver coin concealed in each. According to custom, the person finding the coin is destined for a prosperous year.

In India, one week before the holiday, all villages that observe Christmas, fast by not eating animal food. On the last day they eat no food at all until they take communion on Christmas Eve.

Probably the most universal custom associated with Christmas is sending Christmas cards.

For a custom that is so well established all over the world, it is relatively new, however -- just over a century old.

It was in 1843 that the first

Christmas card was published in England by Sir Henry Cole, who commissioned an artist named John Horsley to design a Christmas "greeting" for him because he was too busy to write to his friends at Christmas.

Since then, the sending of Christmas Cards has become almost universal, although in some countries New Year, instead of Christmas, greetings are sent for the mas.

Milk Price For November Below October, Says PMA

Influenced by a decrease in Class I (bottled milk) sales which had hit an all-time high monthly volume in October, the milk price to be paid Chicago market producers on 70 percent of their November deliveries will be not less than $3.85 per cwt., or 3 cents below the October price, W.H. Cope, director of marketing for Pure Milk Association, reported today.

On the remaining 30 percent of farmers' November deliveries, the producer price will be the order blend price of not less than $3.77 per cwt.

The Wisconsin-Minnesota average price for manufacturing milk for November increased 2 cents, to $3.29 per cwt., which became the Chicago Class III price charged dealers and had a firming affect on the blend price.

The $3.85 price on 70 percent of deliveries includes an 8-cent payment from superpool reserve and is the highest superpool price since November 1961. The superpool reserve fund is the result of a "Louisville Plan" developed by Federated Dairy Cooperatives, the superpool bargaining agency for Chicago market dairy farmers.

Under this plan, some superpool funds are set aside in the high production months of March, April, May and June for payment, including interest, to Chicago market producers in the low production months of August through November.

As in every month since August, the "Louisville Plan" superpool payback added another $350,000 to November milk checks for Chicago market dairy farmers.

The November prices announced by Cope are for producer milk of 3.5 percent butterfat test delivered to plants within the 55- to 70-mile zone, based on mileage from City Hall, Chicago. The differential for each one-tenth of one percent of butterfat above or below 3.5 percent is 7.5 cents per cwt.

Additional superpool premiums include 5 cents per cwt. on total deliveries made by dairy farmers located within 70 miles of Chicago, plus a graduated premium of 3 to 10 cents per cwt. on all milk which farmers, regardless of location, deliver to plants shipping over 5 percent to over 40 percent of their milk to the Chicago market. These special premiums were announced early this year by Federated Dairy Cooperatives and will continue through January 31, 1965.

The superpool premiums are payments made by handlers on Class I milk (milk used in bottling) and the fluid portion of Class II milk. Their purpose is to help farmers meet the rising costs of producing milk.

November deliveries under Chicago Order 30 totaled 457,383,079 pounds. Approximately 57.4 percent of producer milk in November was used for Class I and Class II purposes, compared with 62 percent in October, this year.

Total Class I and Class II sales in November decreased nearly 1 1/3 million pounds below November 1963.

Sonic Booms To Jar Residents For 3 Months

Beginning Jan. 4 and continuing for three months this area will be subjected to sonic booms, according to announcements this week.

The air force is planning some training flights for high speed bombers. They are scheduled to fly from the north across Lake Michigan and to a point south of Kankakee.

While this area is not expected to get the full force of the booms it will still be noisy, it was pointed out, but the air force people contend that sonic booms have not killed anyone yet.

In other areas deliberately subjected to sonic booms to test the strength of people and buildings it was found that some buildings emerged the worse for wear but no one was reported dead.

In the runs that are to begin Jan. 4 there will be no booms between 10 p.m. and 7 a.m., it was said.

Crash Near Rts. 6 & 7 Kills 1; Mokenan Hurt

A Lockport man was killed and a Mokena man injured in a three-car collision near the intersection of Routes 6 and 7 last Friday morning between 6:30 and 7 o'clock.

Dead is Wally Ryza, 54, of 107 North ave., Lockport, a truck dispatcher employed at Thornton. He was enroute home from work it was said.

The Mokena man injured was William W. Matthews, 36, of 23 Elmwood. He suffered head injuries, according to the report, but they were not believed to be serious.

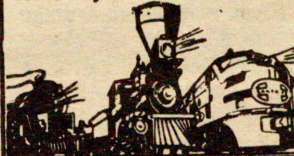

Police that investigated the crash reported that Arnold J. Bolte, 55, of 1219 Black rd., Joliet, was traveling west on Route 7 and rammed the rear end of Ryza's car. Ryza also was traveling west. The impact sent Ryza's automobile into the east bound lane where it collided head on with Matthews.

Ryza died at the Oak Forest hospital. Bolte was ticketed for driving too fast for conditions. He is said to have escaped hurt.

Funeral services for Ryza were held Saturday.

Lincoln-Way Holds Place At Top Of Cage League

Knights Drop Co-Leading Sandburg Quintet 74 To 59

BY NORMAN BEEBE
Lincoln - Way varsity cagers took the lead in the Southwest Suburban Conference standing last week end by dishing out a 74 to 59 defeat to the Carl Sandburg outfit from Orland Park.

The Knights under the tutelage of Al Willis, new coach this season have been playing good ball this fall. They lost their first two starts by narrow margins but since then have remained in the winner's circle.

Lincoln-Way has some excellent shooting so far and has been fortunate in that there is someone working all the time.

In the game against Sandburg, Howie Grimes made 22 points and Tom Hamilton 26. Stanfill had 14 tallies, Schram seven and Schroeder five.

Bruce Hyink, who stands almost 6 feet, 10 inches tall, contributed 21 of the Eagles points, and Doran Harding, a junior guard had 17; Drew Corley dropped in 12 tallies, Broman had seven.

Sandburg missed the services Senior Roland Roth, a 6-foot 1 1/2-inch forward who would have been of help in the rebound department. Roth was unable to play because of illness.

When the two teams met each had three wins in conference play.

The Knights started off to a 14-10 lead in first quarter as a result of the efforts of Hamilton and Bill Stanfill.

Then Hamilton and Grimes went to work in the second quarter to push the Knights into a 10-point lead at the half, 33 to 23.

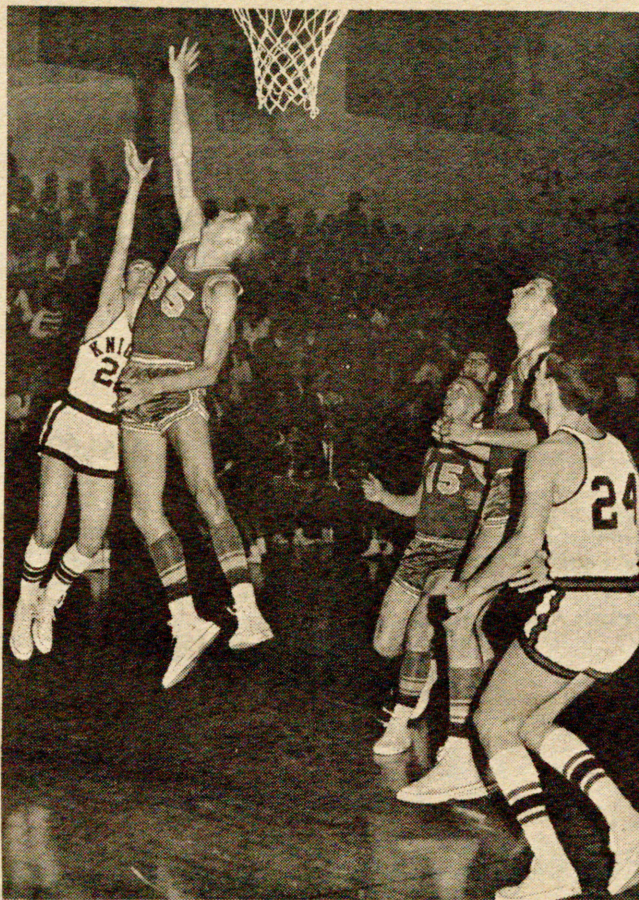

The Eagles closed the gap to eight points in the third frame but the period ended with Lincoln-Way leading 56 to 41.

The Knight kept on scoring in the final quarter and at one time had a 20-point margin which the Eagles shaved to 15 at the game's end.

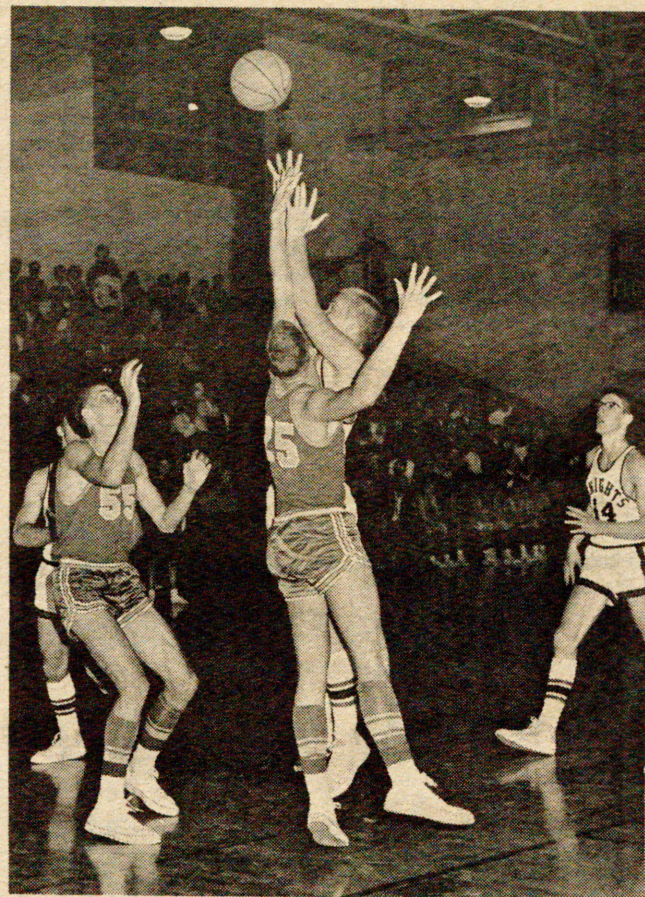

Both teams will rest from the conference war this week-end and will engage in tournament competition instead. Lincoln-Way is to play in the Joliet invitational tourney and Sandburg is to compete in the Rockford tournament which will feature such strong teams as Maine South, Dundee and Chicago Carver.

The Eagles meet East Peoria in the first game and if victorious will take on Carver in the second game.

Lincoln-Way is to play Mt. Prospect in the first round, playing Dec. 26.

IT LOOKS like Lincoln-Way was about to mark up another score to judge from the looks of the Sandburg players at the right. "Don't go in," they are telling the ball that is up over the basket. The No. 55 is Sandburg's Drew Corley and the Lincoln-Way man is Keith Schram. No. 24 is Mike Seitzinger. The tall Eagle player next to him is Bruce Hyink, who is about 6-foot-10 and No. 15 is Doug Erickson. (Wayne Sutton photo)

Boosters Club Proposes To Light CSHS Football Field

The Eagles Boosters club, which, as the name implies, is made up of supporters of the Sandburg high school athletic program, would bring night football to the school.

At a meeting of the high school board last week two representatives of the Boosters club, Glenn Aronson and Dr. A. C. Larcher, said the organization was prepared to proceed with a program for lighting the gridiron. While plans are not complete the Boosters believe they can obtain "an installation worth $25-to $30,000 for between $8,500 and $10,000," Aronson said.

The club has considered several projects," he added, "and lights for the football field seemed to have top priority."

Board members voiced no objection to the proposed gift financed by the Boosters, providing that the school district is legally protected in all actions.

The board also plans to explore the possibility of making the Sandburg field "home" for both Stagg and Sandburg teams. Such a plan, board members felt, would not only be an economy but would provide better facilities for both schools. By having but one field to maintain it could be kept in top condition at less cost.

Board members will also consider the possibility of making the Stagg gym the "home" court for both schools during the basketball season.

Supt. W. O. Fisher met with the district's counsel to explore the legal problems which might arise from the project if the Boosters club proceeds with it.

Eagle Swim Team Splits Peoria Meets

The swimming Eagles of Carl Sandburg took their first loss of the season last Friday as they were defeated by Peoria Richwoods 71-24. The next day the Eagles brought their record to 5-1 as they downed Peoria Central 51-44.

Richwoods, an up-and-coming central state power, completely dominated Friday's meet as they won every event except the backstroke. Sandburg's Mike McNaughton won that event for the Eagles in 1:01.7.

Saturday saw the Eagles win six of the eleven events, with several second place finishes.

The Eagles spent the weekend as guests of the Peoria Richwoods team. The team joined Homewood - Flossmoor in the weekend of double - dual meet competition.

Sandburg's next meet is with the Spartans of Oak Lawn in the Spartans' home pool Jan. 5.

Sandburg Grapplers Make It 5 In A Row

BY MARTY BARNHART
The grapplers of Carl Sandburg, last week extended their unbeaten streak to five meets, by defeating Rich East 26-14 and Rich Central 23-21.

Rich East proved to be no match for the Eagle matmen, with victories for Sandburg by Danny Peterson, Tom Osting, Bill Karolick, Larry Cobden, Harry Werner, Karl Panazek and Ed Apel.

Saturday, Rich Central proved to be just a little bit tougher, but the Eagles managed to squeak by 23-21. It was quite an unusual meet, with six matches ending in ties. The six Eagles were Larry Clark, Harry Werner, Bob Fitzpatrick, Tom Osting, Jesse Powell and Karl Panazek. The Eagles did however, emerge with victories by Danny Peterson, Tom Haislet and Ed Apel.

Larry Cobden was defeated for the first time this year, while Tom Osting and Ed Apel remained undefeated. The Eagles are now 4-2-1 for the season.

Sandburg will not participate in any dual meets over the holidays, but will rake part in the Rich holiday tournament there, Dec. 26 through 29. Their next dual meet will be Jan. 6, when the Eagles travel to Blue Island to meet the Cardinals of Dwight D. Eisenhower.

The sophomores also won two meets over the weekend, defeating Rich Central 24-19. Weekend wins were posted by Larry Moen, Quentin Wolff, Tom Pierson, Robert Schumde, Larry Bernard and Greg Schelkum.

LINING UP FOR TURN at shooting? It looks something like that anyway. That No. 20 in the Knight uniform is Tom Hamilton and the Sandburg player jumping with him is Van Roman. First in the line at the right is L-W's Howie Grimes, Sandburg's Bruce Hyink is next but the numbers are not visible on the other players so their names are not available for this caption. Christmas Gift Giving Strictly American Idea Exchanging gifts on Christmas Day is basically an American tradition.

Many Europeans exchange gifts on New Year's Day instead. Christmas is strictly a religious day in most parts of Europe and is not celebrated with gaiety, visiting and gift-giving.

The gift-giving custom dates back to the time of the Roman Emperors from about 27 B.C. to 363 A.D. It was customary to send a gift to the Emperor at the start of the New Year to wish him good fortune.

At first, the gift was likely to be a branch of bay or palm which the whole populace felt obliged to send. But, in time, the gifts became more elaborate and costly to win the Emperor's favor.

Later the Romans began giving each other presents and sending special greetings to friends and relatives. From the Romans, the custom spread to Europe.

The ancient Chinese also celebrated the New Year by exchanging gifts, and they are responsible for introducing two Christmas decorating techniques -- gift wrapping and paper honey-comb.

The Chinese liked to incorporate a special symbolism into their wrapped packages. Most gifts were wrapped in red and decorated with gold-leaf seals. The seal might represent the Fu Dong meaning "protection", the fir tree, signifying "long life", or the bamboo tree which meant "virtue, long life and many sons" for the recipient.

The idea of gift wrapping came to the United States less than 60 years ago. It started quite by accident. A shipment of envelope lining papers arrived too late for a New York stationer's Christmas line, so rather than hold them in store, he decided to sell them for gift wrappings.

For Gay Decorating

Christmas cards can be the key to a host of exciting decorating ideas in the home.

A pair of scissors, some cellophane tape, a ball of colored yarn, the Christmas mail -- plus a little ingenuity -- is all that's needed to create a sparkling holiday atmosphere in the home.

Place a brightly-hued card in the center of the holiday wreath on your door, preferably one with "Christmas Greetings" in large letters.

If you have a glass top coffee table, place an assortment under the glass. Try using a single theme--winter scenes, florals, Americana, religious.

Create a striking religious tableau on a small table or mantel by standing religious cards about the family Bible opened to St. Luke's narrative of the first Christmas.

Don't forget the kitchen. This room is given less attention than any other when it comes to decorating at Christmas time.

As a final touch, place several of your best Christmas cards with religious scenes of the Christ Child, dance committee for the fund raising dance to be held in the V.F.W. Hall in Mokena on Feb. 20. This is an annual affair, which accounts for much of the working capital of the organization for the year. Baseball equipment and safety equipment for the boys is expensive.

There will be a meeting of the dance committee at the home of Joe Arcuri of 19547 S. Walnut St. on Jan. 25 at 8 p.m.

There will be an auditing of the treasurers books of both the Baseball league and the Auxiliary Baseball league by a committee consisting of the president, the vice president, and the treasurer.

Please keep the S & H Green Stamp Books coming in to the Baseball League. The books will be used to obtain uniforms for the boys. There has been some response to the request, but the ultimate goal is still a long way off.

If you have a book to contribute to the cause, please contact either Jordan Marzano at 479 - 9263, Joe Mangan at 479-3921, or Pick Prather at 479-3451.

The Arbury Hills Teens club were scheduled to have their Christmas party at the old school house on 191st st. on last Saturday, Dec. 19. There is also a meeting scheduled for the following Monday, Dec. 21 at the school.

The Teens Club is recently re-organized with the Summit Hill Parent-Teacher Group as their new adult sponsors. Membership in the group has three requirements: First, residence within the school district 161; Second, presently attending school, school dropouts are not permitted membership in the group; and Third, an age limit of thirteen to eighteen.

The meetings are held at the school on the first and third Monday of each month from 7:00 p.m. until 10:00 p.m. The meetings are short with social activities taking the majority of the evening, including also sports activities such as volley ball. There are adult chaperones at the meetings as is sensibly required by the school board.

The Arbury Hills Baby Sitters Cooperative will have their secretary's book change hands on next Wednesday, Dec. 30, from Mrs. George Peterson, who has been secretary for the past month, to Mrs. Tom Tanis, who will act as secretary for the coming month. Any member needing a sitter for this coming month should contact Mrs. Tanis at 479-5194 at least twenty-four hours in advance of the date needed.

In addition if there are any women in Arbury Hills who would be interested in joining the group, or would

L-W Board Urges Easier Access To Expressways

A letter to the director of the state department of public works, Francis S. Lorenz urging that the interchange at N. Cedar rd. and FAI-80 to be reinstated in the plans for the east-west transcontinental expressway, has been written by Supt. A. Hunter Chapman, of Lincoln-Way high school. The letter was written on instructions of the board of education.

This interchange, it was pointed out, would also serve to enter and leave the proposed new north-south expressway, FAI-61, and so make the area attractive to industry.

The letter continues: "... Probably no school district in the state of Illinois will lose more assessed valuation resulting from construction of a highway that Dist. 210. I-80 cuts thru the middle of the district for approximately 13 miles with two interchanges.

"We strongly feel that our school district should want further information about the group, please also contact Mrs. Tanis at the above number.

A reminder to all members of the Baby Sitters Group, there is a rule that no one is to ask for a baby sitter for the New Year's Eve holiday. It was felt that all would want to be with their husbands on this night. Our sympathies are extended to Mrs. Barry Diercouff, the adult director of the Arbury Achievers the local 4-H Group, on the recent death of her mother. Mrs. Diercouff will have a few months off from her activities in the 4-H in her time of bereavement. The present plans are for the group to continue having their meetings at the homes of the different members with the mothers supervising the activities until such time that Mrs. Diercouff returns to active status.

Oetter Attends Meeting Of Modern Woodmen Agents

Kenneth Oetter, Frankfort, Modern Woodmen of America District Agent for the Frankfort area, has returned from Peoria, where he joined over 60 other leading agents and managers at a two-day regional sales conference of the legal reserve fraternal life insurance society.

A group of officials from the Modern Woodmen home office in Rock Island, Illinois, reported that the Society's assets are now in excess of a quarter of a billion dollars; insurance in force exceeds three quarters of a billion.

Announcement was made of a new service program, the Orphan Benefit, which will become effective Jan. 1. Under the new benefit, or-receive every consideration and assistance in partially compensating for this loss by making this area more attractive to industry. Accessibility by expressway is necessary to attract industry and the supply of labor. . . .

The board also is asking the state for improved maintenance of U.S. 30. No snow fence was erected along the school property bordering the highway and the snow of Dec. 3 and 4 had Route 30 blocked. Route 30 also has been hazardous for school buses on occasions this season because of lack of salt and cinders, the board reported.

phaned junior members or children of adult members will receive financial support thru age 18, at which time they will become eligible for college scholarships.

4-H'ers Hold Annual Achievement Program

MRS. SHERMAN KNOX
Telephone: FI9-0211
Monday evening, Dec. 7,
Eager Beaverettes, Orland Girls, Alpine girls and Orland Boys held their local achievement award meeting at the Orland Center school with approximately 75 members and parents present.
The program was based on
"Why Not Enjoy Music".

Mrs. Marvin Cooper and Mrs. Clarence Kelsey awarded project honors to Gayle Bernard in garden;
Donna Coy, Claudia Kelsey and Joyce Steinborn in handicraft; Marianne Cooper in dairy; Elaine Sheehan in beef. Marianne Cooper,
Elaine Sheehan and Joyce Steinborn also received project honors in foods.

Marianne Cooper received the Oliver Corp. dairy award, the Heisdorf and Nelson Farms Inc. poultry award, National Dairy Corp. award, Illinois Holstein - Friesian Breeders Association certificate.
Elaine Sheehan received in Beef Project honor, project outstanding in County and State.

The Alpine girls led group singing and gave their awards. John Biddle of Orland Boys sang several songs and played his guitar.

Cookies, pop and coffee was enjoyed by all with an old fashioned get-together of visiting.

Seaman recruit Clinton B.
Reno, 17, USN, son of Mrs.
Lorraine Reno of 14428 West ave., recently began basic training at the naval training center, Great Lakes, Ill.

All college students, service men and older youth are invited to be guests at a special Christmas holiday breakfast at the Methodist Church, given by the secretary of student work, Mrs.
Ann Ebeling, at 8:15 a.m.
Sunday, Dec. 27. They will meet in the basement of the new church. Following the breakfast, several of the young people will take part in the recognition services at 9:30 and 10:45 a.m.

The IYF group went Christmas caroling Sunday evening, at several homes in town. After the caroling, they gathered at the church for hot - chocolate and cookies.

Orland Park Unit #526, the American Legion Auxiliary has again allowed $50 for Christmas gifts to veterans at Vaughns hospital. Lilah Kruspe, Rehab chairman, received names of 5 veterans at the hospital, stating what they would like and also their sizes, so Lilah shopped and gift wrapped the articles with a Christmas card and presented them to the boys at the hospital, Wednesday, December 16. This is a yearly project in which the Unit has taken part.

Mokena Man Critically Injured In Collision

Robert E. Mansfield, 24, Revere rd., Mokena, an electrical engineer, is in Moline Public hospital, Moline, Ill., as a result of a two-car collision that took two lives last week-end. His condition is described as critical and his mother, Mrs. Vera Mansfield, with whom he resided, is at his bedside.

The accident occurred Friday night on U.S. 67, about 15 miles south of Rock Island. Dead are: Patrick G. Horan, 24, of Matherville, Ill., and Alfred Joris, 26, of Rock Island.

Joris was instantly killed. Horan died Saturday.

Mansfield and Horan attended Marquette university together. After graduation as electrical engineers Mansfield joined General Electric but Horan decided to study law and was at Jamestown. He was planning to spend the Christmas vacation at home and Mansfield met him at O'Hare Field Friday and the two started out for Horan's home at Matherville. It was near Matherville that the accident occurred but from the reports it was not clear whether Horan or Mansfield was driving. Joris was alone in the car.

Orland Cub Scouts Have Yule Party

Pack #318 of Orland Park had their Christmas party Dec. 17 at the Orland school.

Awards were given for achievement to: Joseph Enk, silver arrow; William Sammortree, wolf badge and gold arrow; Mark Larotonda, bobcat pin; Paul Schmaedeke, gold arrow.

Den #2 gave a puppet show. Den #4 won the attendance award for the second time. The pack that has the most attendance, including parents, gets to keep the "Hawk" for one month. This is quite a privilege for them.

The boys made their own Christmas tree ornaments, so they all joined in and decorated their tree, which Mrs. Beverly Lemmons purchased.

Santa Claus was there and presented Christmas stockings to all.

The next pack meeting will be held Jan. 22, at which time the pinewood derby kits will be available.

Merry Christmas

Roll call - A Christmas verse, was answered by 18 members and one guest, Mrs. Louis Richards, at the pot-luck Christmas dinner meeting of the Frankfort-Mokena Homemakers Extension unit held in the home of Mrs. Walter Welsch.

A gift exchange and group singing of familiar Christmas carols with accordion accompaniment by Mrs. Richards preceded the short business meeting.

A cash donation was sent to the Trinity school for mentally retarded children.

The minor lesson, "What Our Hands Tell Others," was given by Mrs. Walter Welsch with the assembled group participating.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Raymond Westlund, Tuesday, Jan. 19 when the Home Advisor will present the major lesson "Physical Fitness-Related to Health".

Two new members were recently welcomed into the unit, Mrs. Lou Briedert and Mrs. William F. Miller.

Miss Eileen Byron, 9404 W. Magnolia was recently honored at a luncheon given by Spiegel, Inc. for 20 years of service with that company.

St. John's Christmas day worship service will be held at 9:30 a.m. with the sacrament of holy communion. The combined choirs will sing, "Come to the Stable with Jesus."

A pre-Christmas party program was enjoyed by the members of the Mokena Woman's Club when they met Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Robert Best, Arby Hills.

The girls ensemble of the public grade school sang several selections under the direction of Miss Sharon Connolly, music director.

A dramatic recitation entitled "The Littlest Angel" was given by Miss Jo VanRheeden of Frankfort and later group singing was enjoyed with Mrs. Louis Richards, president, accompanying the group on the accordion and Mrs. Robert Watson, leading the singing.

During the short business meeting Mrs. Robert Mackey, hospital chairman, announced old Christmas cards would be welcomed by patients at Tinley Park hospital, by cutting off the names of the sender and securing new envelopes to fit the cards. The cards will then be given to the hospital for patients to resend. Mrs. Mackey also announced the January meeting place has been changed to the home of Mrs. Louise McGann, Kohlwood Estates, and the program will be under the mental health department. A film strip entitled "The 91st Day" will be shown.

Refreshments of punch and Christmas cookies were served by Mrs. Lawrence Kohl and Mrs. Richards at an attractive table festooned with holiday garlands.

On Sunday, Dec. 27 Student Recognition Sunday will be observed during the morning worship service at Mokena Methodist church.

All students attending colleges or universities will be honored at the 10:45 a.m. service. Students who will participate in the service explaining the church and campus relationships and also showing an insight into the church and higher education are: Paul and Lurene Brown; Gregory Fantt; David Howell; Tim Hull and Susan Lotz.

Following the service coffee will be served in Fellowship Hall by the Women's Society of Christian Service.

Area High School Youths Wage War Against Cancer

Representatives of nine area high schools met Tuesday night at the office of the American Cancer Society as members of the Education Committee of Teens Against Cancer. Charged with the responsibility of bringing cancer facts to their classmates, the committee has formulated plans for promoting the use of cancer education films and posters. Plans are being made for a field trip to one of the research facilities where projects are in process through the support of American Cancer Society research funds.

The meeting was presided over by David Fletcher, Plainfield high school, vice-president. Committee members present were Donna Decker of Reed - Custer High; Cindy Maren of Joliet West; Kathi Esposito of Providence high; Barbara Dallner and Judy Rohde of Lemont Township; Pete Kent and Dave Fletcher of Plainfield; David Zegers, Joliet Central; Larry DuBien, Lincoln - Way; Connie Beavon and David Moulthrop of Lockport Central and Del Bitter, Lockport East.

Anyone desiring additional information concerning Teens Against Cancer or the free educational films available from the American Cancer Society may call the office at 727-4086.

Will County Private Schools Serve 14,947

Enrollment in the private schools of Will county totals 14,947, according to a report released from the office of County Supt. Vene E. Crackel.

Of this number 10,755 are pupils in elementary schools; 2,652 in high schools and 1,540 in colleges.

There are 28 grade schools operated by the Roman Catholic church in the county and four by the Lutheran church. The Catholics have four high schools, and two colleges. College of St. Francis has an enrollment of 709 and Lewis college, 831.

Two of the high schools are in this area, Sacred Heart, of Mokena, with 226 students, and Providence at New Lenox with an enrollment of 538. Joliet Catholic high has 795 boys enrolled and St. Francis Academy, 1,093 girls.

St. Jude grade school at New Lenox has 292 pupils; St. Mary, of Mokena, 383, and St. Joseph, of Manhattan, 109.

First Holiday Greeting Was New Year Card

The earliest known holiday greeting card is a crude wood cut printed about 1450 in the Rhine Valley, Germany.

Actually a New Year's card, it shows the Christmas Child standing in the bow of an ancient galley manned by angels, with the Holy Mother seated at the mast.

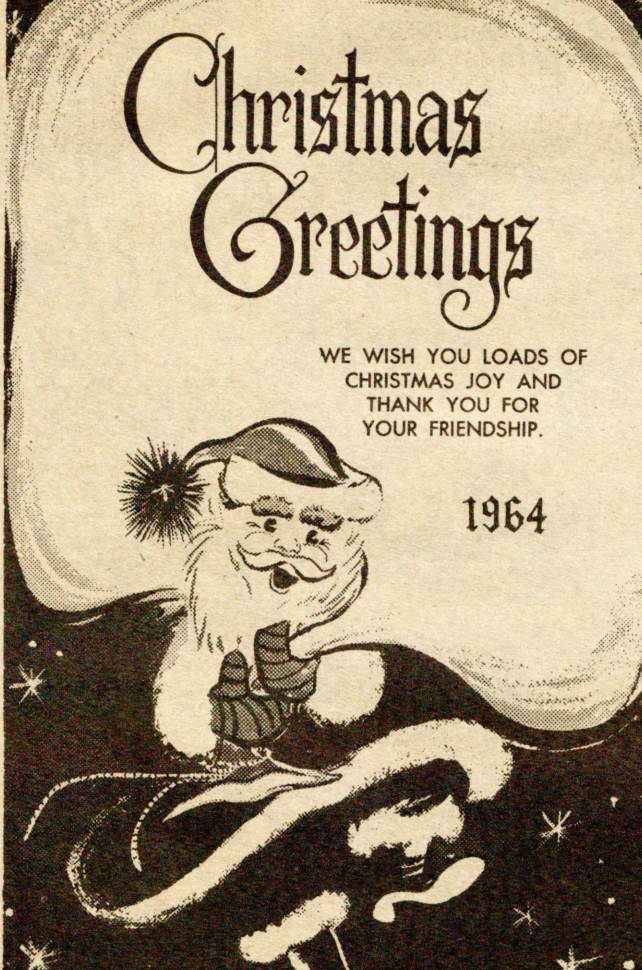

HAPPY NEW YEAR

Accept our best wishes for a successful New Year.

Cloverbells Have Real Christmas--Get Awards

MRS. DELORES ANDERSON
Telephone: 485-3651

The December meeting of the Cloverbells 4-H club was held Saturday afternoon
Dec. 12 followed by a Christmas party and the presentation of awards.

Awards were as follows:
Judy Termunde 1964 winner of the Illinois food nutrition award as a state winner.
Judy attended the 43rd National 4-H club congress at the Conrad Hilton hotel in Chicago, as guests of General Foods Corporation.
This award was the result of Judy's outstanding work in foods and nutrition in the last 10 years. She also received the I Dare You book award, medals of achievement in bread, clothing, daily foods, food preservation and health.
She was also one of the outstanding 4-H members in the county.

Other awards are as follows: County and State project honor medals: Janet Shepard, and Linda Shepard;
dress revue pins, Carol Lewis, Sue Shwab, and Judy Termunde; leadership awards: Sue Swab, Linda Shepard, and Judy Termunde; county and state: Janet Shepard, Sue Shwab, Linda Shepard, Mary Helen Riley, Judy Termunde.

Also, county and state outstanding: Linda Shepard, and Judy Termunde. Five-Year
Pins, Carol Lewis, Sue Shwab, and Mary Helen Riley; Three-year pins: Cindy Holm.

1st year certificate and pins: Patty Abbott, Darlene Holm, Susue Neillis, and Susan Rainford.

The next meeting of the Cloverbells will be held on January 2 at the home of Mrs. Alice Termunde.

The first Home Study Group met Tuesday, Dec. 15 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. George Morgan, Lantern lane, Sugar Creek drive, in Joliet for their Christmas party and meeting. Mrs.
Diane Ruden was co-hostess.

The New Lenox Woman's club held their annual Christmas luncheon at Bruns Tuesday, Dec. 15 with 18

members and 1 guest, Mrs.
John Pester. The committee consisting of Isabelle Francis, Della Brown and Ruby Gougar, had beautifully decorated tables and presented each with a Christmas corsage. The program was given by Maude Ayres and Betty Duerr. In lieu of Christmas gift exchange, the members gave money to be used for milk at the Easter Seal Foundation. The next meeting will be held Tuesday, Jan. 19 at the home of Betty Duerr with Irene Peterson as assisting hostess.

FROM THE STAFF AT

NORMAN'S CLEANERS

ORLAND PARK, ILLINOIS

Plan Annual Yule Party

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lund, 14927 S. 82nd, Orland Park, will host the annual Christmas party of the South Suburban auxiliary of the Cradle Society at 9 p.m., Saturday, Dec. 26 in their home.

Committee members, in addition to the Lunds, are Mr. and Mrs. Wilton I. Gates, Steger; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry D. Hawkins, Country Club Hills; Mr. and Mrs. William Sikorski, Midlothian; and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Willis, Dolton.

Rock Island To Demonstrate Bi-Level Cars

The Rock Island railroad is to run a special pre-view train Jan. 5, featuring the first new bi-level commuter cars delivered to the company.

Invited to make the run are representatives of Chicago and suburban news media and civic officials in the territory.

The train is to leave the LaSalle Street station at 10 a.m. for the 40 mile run to Joliet.

PRIZE WINNERS William Mutsch, Mokena, and R.A. Sheppy (they are the ones holding silver bowls) who received awards as top salesmen in the Building Material Division, Chicago district, of the Johns-Manville Corp. The presentation was made at a dinner party at Pheasant Run Lodge, near St. Charles, Ill. Going right thru from left to right are, F.H. Bingham, manager Chicago district, Mr. Mutsch, R. M. Finn, sales promotion and advertising, New York; J.H. Fredrickson, assistant district manager, Chicago and Mr. Sheppy. Mutsch and Sheppy work as a team that covers most of the south side of Chicago and the south and south west suburbs.

Mokena Auto License Fee Rises Jan. 1

Mokena residents with automobiles can save $2 if they buy their village vehicle licenses before Jan. 1. Beginning Jan. 1 the village stickers will cost $5. Persons who have not acquired them by Feb. 15 will find that a fine and court costs will push the cost up considerably higher.

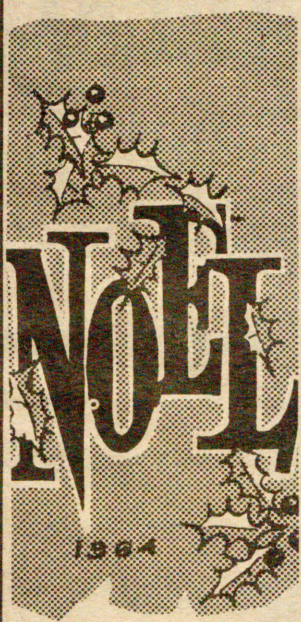

A notice to this effect was carried on the water bills sent out this month. In the past, according to village officials, many persons contend they did not see any notice when village car license fees were due. Officials point out that by putting the notice on the water bills such an excuse should be eliminated unless some of the recipients never look at the water bills either.

Taxpayers Over 65 Can Deduct Cost Of Medicines

Medicine and drug expenses for taxpayers 65 years and older will be fully deductible on this year's Federal income tax returns.

The full deductibility of these expenses under the 1964 Revenue Act was pointed out today by E. C. Coyle, Jr., district director of internal revenue. He said this will save elderly taxpayers about $10 million a year in taxes.

SCHEDULE CHANGES
The Illinois commerce commission has approved several changes in the Rock Island train schedules on commuter runs but they have no effect west of Blue Island.

Pupils Sing Carols At PTA Christmas Party

MRS. EMIL WILLE
Telephone: 469-5277
The Ann Rutledge PTA held their meeting and annual Christmas party Monday evening, Dec. 14. The children of the school, assisted by their teachers, entertained with Christmas songs. Mrs. George Kaehler accompanied them on the piano.

The business meeting was presided over by Ferne Griggs, president. Don Ball Sr. spoke to the group about wrestling training. He urged the boys in the four upper grades to try out for wrestling. Ray Melaney, wrestling coach of Lincoln-Way high school and two varsity boys, explained and showed the regulation equipment that the boys are required to wear. They also demonstrated some of the techniques used.

It was reported that the hot lunches are proving to be popular but help would be appreciated in serving them. Lunches are served twice a month.

Games were played and carols sung by the group, also a gift exchange. Refreshments were served by the executive board.

Mr. and Mrs. John Nicholson have returned from Richmond, Va. Mr. Nicholson had been working in Virginia and West Virginia for the past six months. He is employed by the Western Electric Corp.

Mr. and Mrs. William Frankenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mankowski, Mr. and Mrs. Don Carsten, Mrs. Walter Ritt, Mrs. Emereth Boyden and Mrs. Pete Hogeveen attended the victory dinner for the Democrats which was held Thursday night at D'Amico's restaurant in Joliet.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Wille spent Sunday in the home of the former's nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ketelaar and family at Lowell, Ind.

CHURCHES
St. Anthony's Catholic - Fr. Cecil Koop OFM, pastor. Sunday masses at 9 and 10 a.m.

Calvary Baptist - Rev. S. E. Waldemer, pastor. Sunday school at 10 a.m. Sunday morning worship at 10:45 a.m. Sunday evening service at 7 p.m. Wednesday prayer meeting at 7 p.m.

DOLLS, a big boxful of yarn dolls, made by the girls in Home Ec. at Providence high school, New Lenox, were turned in at high school Red Cross headquarters, Joliet, last week-end and by today they have been distributed so that many a child will have a happier Christmas. The girls shown here represent their classmates -- 53 in all. From left to right they are, Gloria Lambert, Mary Lynn Hylka, Nancy Ksiazak, all of Joliet, and Georgia Handorf, New Lenox township. The teacher, Mrs. Gena Kuehn, is a resident of Mokena.

Former Will Co. Sheriff Car Victim; Rites Monday

Funeral services were conducted Monday morning for John Kirincich, 59, of 306 Ruby st., Joliet, former Will county sheriff who was killed Thursday night (Dec. 17) in an automobile crash in Palos township.

He was manager of the State of Illinois building at 160 N. LaSalle st., and was on his way home alone when the accident occurred.

According to state police from the Blue Island station, the former sheriff was traveling west on Route 83, about a mile east of Route 4-A when a semi-trailer was backed out of a driveway in front of him. Kirincich did not have a chance to avoid the crash, it was said.

The truck driver, Richard Sargent, 32, of Chicago, a driver for a Fremont, Neb. firm, told police that he had pulled into the driveway so he could back out and turn back to aid the driver of a disabled truck he had passed. State police ticketed Sargent for improper backing. The truck driver was uninjured. The top of the Kirincich car was sheared off.

ited with his grandmother, Mrs. Katharine Heisner and other relatives and friends this past week. Lane, stationed at Long Beach naval base in California, visited here for the first time in two years. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lane Sr. and daughter Gwen of Culver, Ind., also spent the weekend with Mrs. Heisner as houseguests. David returned with his parents to Culver.

The Lanes were here to attend the wedding of their son, Lt. Edward Lane who married Miss Mary Ellen Been on Saturday evening at the Frankfort Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Janssen are the parents of a daughter born Dec. 18 at Silver Cross hospital. She weighed 7 lbs. 7 oz.

Dr. and Mrs. Irving Rudman held a seasonal dinner party at their home Saturday evening.

Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Albert Krusemark, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Breidert, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Don Freeh, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Kohlhausen, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Osmus and Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Petnuch.

Sandra Wieringa was one of eight girls selected by Trailways Girl Scout Council to attend the annual round-up this coming summer. The girls were selected on the basis of their camping skills, ability to get along in a group, leadership, poise, and merit as Girl Scouts. In making their selection from a wide field of applicants, the round-up committee evaluated the girls from a weekend at camp recommendations from troop leaders, personal interviews and opinions of the girls themselves.

This fourth Girl Scout Round-up will be held July 17 to 26 at Farragut Wild Life Management Area in Idaho. Over 8,000 girls from all over the U.S. and many foreign countries will attend the round-up which is planned to give the girls not only a better understanding of their part in the national Girl Scout movement but also a knowledge of girls from other areas.
